

24 MAY 1965

Honorable Wilbur D. Mills
Chairman
Committee on Ways and Means
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Mills:

In accordance with your suggestion in our most pleasant meeting of a week ago, there is enclosed a draft of the change in wording of the amendment considered by the Committee during the last session for exemption from gross income of disability annuity payments under the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act.

This change in wording from that previously considered by the Committee is not a substantive one but is required by the change in the title of the Retirement Act as passed by the Congress.

If there is anything further that I may do to assist the Committee, would you please advise me.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

John S. Warner
Legislative Counsel

Enclosure
